Notes: This is confusing. The age and spelling of the name are incorrect for Louisa. It appears to be the same family. Also, it appears that Anna has been double counted. Perhaps she lived at the house where she worked on weekdays and came home on weekends. The census was taken one week apart. I am guessing that the Smith's had a second building on their farm, and that Anna and Martin lived in that building. This would account for the different dewelling numbers.

Notes: Edward's age should have been about 51. The place of birth of Edward and Minnie's parents were difficult to read, but looked similar to each other. Is it possible that Minnie was Joe's sister-in-law?
